Report on Seminar: "How to Speak Confidently"

Date: 02/08/2019
Organised by: Tulsi College of Computer Science & Information Technology
Chief Guest: Miss Manisha Paithankar

On February 8, 2019, Tulsi College of Computer Science & Information Technology organised a highly engaging seminar titled "How to Speak Confidently." The event aimed to equip students with essential communication skills, emphasising the importance of confidence in public speaking.

The primary objectives of the seminar were to:

- Enhance students' verbal communication skills.
- Build self-confidence in public speaking scenarios.
- Provide practical tips and techniques for effective speaking.

Key Points Discussed:

- Understanding Confidence: Miss Paithankar discussed the psychology of confidence and how it affects public speaking. She highlighted common fears and anxieties that speakers face and offered strategies to overcome them.
- Body Language: The importance of non-verbal communication was emphasized. Miss Paithankar illustrated how posture, gestures, and eye contact can significantly enhance the message being delivered.
- Structuring Your Speech: Participants were taught how to organize their thoughts effectively. Miss Paithankar provided a framework for creating impactful speeches, focusing on clear beginnings, informative bodies, and strong conclusions.
- Engaging the Audience: Techniques for captivating an audience were shared, including storytelling, asking questions, and using humour appropriately.
- Practical Exercises: The seminar included interactive sessions where students practised speaking in front of the group. Miss Paithankar provided constructive feedback, allowing participants to refine their skills in real time.
